✧ The COSMIC WATCH ✧

A new relationship to time. Felt, lived, and embodied

What if time were not a number, but a rhythm?
What if we could feel timelines, not just measure them?

COSMIC WATCH is a visionary instrument that redefines time through:
Sacred geometry – Polyrhythmic sound – Symbolic visual language

It is a living system, worn, seen, or heard. Designed to awaken inner alignment, support consciousness, and reweave our connection to the cosmos.

A tool for remembering soul time.

A bridge between the ancient future and the now.

30+ years of research in rhythm, art, and geometry, distilled into the Cosmic Watch system, with experiential tools, performance rituals, and public resonance potential.

WHAT I BRING

Embodied Frequency. Rhythmic Intelligence. Sonic Architecture

I bring the soul of this system, the living rhythm behind the form.
I am a drummer, artist, and explorer of sonic time.

Through performance, installation, and sound, I translate sacred geometry into felt experience, helping people remember time not as a number, but as a field.

This offering is not just conceptual, it's embodied.
Each rhythm is a portal. Each form is a map. Each beat is a mirror.

- 30+ years exploring rhythm as multidimensional language
- Creator of "Cosmodom": a stage architecture for immersive time experiences
- Developer of "Cosmic Drums", sound tools aligned with geometry and inner cycles
- Skilled in initiating experiential journeys for diverse audiences

My art is not entertainment. It is remembrance.

THE INVITATION

A New Time is Calling. Let's Build It Together

This is a call for co-creation.

A portal into a new way of relating to time, to rhythm, to reality.

We are seeking aligned partners:

Visionaries. Investors. Architects of the future.

Those who feel the pull toward systems that heal, reveal, and realign.

COSMIC WATCH is ready to unfold through sound, symbol, and experience.

What we are offering:

- A resonant foundation already in motion
- A clear artistic and spiritual blueprint
- A call to co-create the form, scale, and reach
- A chance to bring forth something timeless

The new Matrix is not mental.

It's Musical
